

Consulting for Financial Services

PRRS is providing consulting services to the (re-)insurance industry mainly in Switzerland and Germany and now is seeking to develop and expand its consulting presence in global key insurance and reinsurance markets, including US, London and Bermuda.

We are a small and efficient team of experts who cooperate across all lines of (re)insurance business to provide tailor-made solutions for our clients, therefore the successful candidate will have

- 15-20 years of industry experience, preferably a mix of senior management and advisor to the industry
- Demonstrated experience in Business Development and Strategic Consulting for the insurance and reinsurance markets
- Deep understanding of corporate and capital structures, including alternative capital, insurance linked securities and innovative risk transfer mechanisms
- Technical expertise in corporate finance, capital markets, insurance and securities regulation as well as tax, finance and accounting aspects of global (re)insurance markets
- Knowledge and contacts in US, UK and BDA insurance markets
- Experience with Swiss inbound investment and structure
